TWELVE DAYS FROM SAN FRANCISCO

The barkentine Coronado, Captain Potter, arrived yesterday afternoon from San Francisco with a general cargo, making the run in 12 days, one day less than was needed by the bark Kaula-lani to cover the distance.

The Kaula-lani arrived yesterday morning and Captain Griffiths was much congratulated on his quick trip thirteen days. Captain Potter beat him a day, however, and is very proud of the Coronado's accomplishment.

The Coronado, while the Kaula-lani is the finer vessel of the two, has some fine points that have to be reckoned with when it comes to a race.

The Coronado brought four passengers, Edna and Claire Kelly, Mrs. Ridley and Mr. Wolzen.
